+The Opening Prayer

Rev. James

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

O God, of glory and God of grace,

whose majesty adorns the heavens and whose mercy fills the earth,
who needs nothing we can give yet gives us everything we need,
who silences the shout of the proud yet amplifies the whispers of the humble, we come before you in awe and gratitude.

Open our hearts and minds that we may perceive your presence and be renewed in our innermost being. Amen.

HYMN TO JOY

The Father's Day Litany

Rev. Bryan

*After each petition, the pastor will conclude: Lord, in your mercy, and all my respond: Hear our prayer.

Together let us pray:

For fathers everywhere, who have given us life and love, that we may show them respect and love.

For fathers who have lost a child through death, that their faith may give them hope, and their family and friends support and console them.

For men who may or may not have children of their own, but act like a father to someone in need of advice, support, nurturing, and love.

For stepfathers who have assumed that role with love and joy, who have loved the children of another as their own and created a new family.

For adoptive fathers, who have heard the call of God to lovingly step forward for those that need their care.

For fathers who have been unable to be a source of strength, who have not responded to the needs of their children and have not sustained their families.

For fathers who struggle with temptation, violence, or addiction. For those who do harm, and for those whom they have harmed.

For new fathers, full of hope. For long-time fathers, full of wisdom. For the fathers yet to be, and fathers soon to be.

For those that have shaped our lives without claim of family or kinship. For those who have taught us, guided us, shaped us and molded us into servants of Christ our Lord.

God our Father, in your wisdom and love you made all things. Bless these men, that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor them always with a spirit of profound respect. Grant this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Offertory

Rachael Hall, Anne-Carine Exumé

Here I Am, Lord

I, the Lord of sea and sky, I have heard my people cry.

All who dwell in dark and sin my hand will save.

I who made the stars of night, I will make their darkness bright.

Who will bear my light to them? Whom shall I send?

Here I am, Lord. Is it I, Lord?

I have heard You calling in the night.

I will go, Lord, if You lead me.

I will hold your people in my heart.

I, the Lord of snow and rain, I have borne my people's pain.

I have wept for love of them. They turn away.

I will break their hearts of stone, give them hearts for love alone.

I will speak my Word to them. Whom shall I send?

*I the Lord of wind and flame, I will tend the poor and lame.
I will set a feast for them. My hand will save.
Finest bread I will provide, till their hearts be satisfied.
I will give my life to them. Whom shall I send?*
Dan Schutte (b. 1947), arr. Lloyd Larson (b. 1954)
